REID SERVANTS & CARRIAGE HOUSE
Savannah, Chatham County, Georgia
118 East State St., in the rear

Owner: Arthur Lucas.

Date of Erection: Approximately 1830.

Present Condition: Dilapidated.

Number of Stories: One and two.

Materials of Construction: Foundation brick, exterior walls of brick faced with cut and dressed red sand stone; slate roof.

Other Existing Records: Records by P. Thornton Marye, District Officer, HABS., 1934.

Additional Data: Typical servants and Carriage house of that period. Built by John H. Reid, who anticipated erecting a mansion in the Adams style and materials but because of the loss of a year's rice crop, changed his plans and built instead a small simple double frame house on the front of the lot.

SOLD BY DONALD MACLEOD DEC. 4, 1829.

Bought by John H. Reid, Ruth Reid, et al

1829 and remained in possession of Reid family until 1920.
